3. 3-Nov-2023 On October 24, 2023, the court of appeals granted the Department of Child Safety's ("DCS") motion to stay the appeal and return the jurisdiction to the superior courts. It further ordered that the stay would be lifted automatically on December 27, 2023, unless before that date DCS files a motion to continue the stay. The court of appeals also affirmed the petition for review due date of November 6, 2023.

On October 25, 2023, Teresa N. ("Mother") filed a "Motion to Stay or Extend Deadline for Filing Petition for Review to Allow Additional Superior Court Proceedings" in this Court. Upon consideration,

IT IS ORDERED granting the motion. The petition for review will be due thirty days after the court of appeals' stay has been lifted. (Hon. William G Montgomery)
4. 5-Mar-2024 FILED: DCS's Notice of Change in Counsel; Certificate of Service (Appellee DCS)
5. 16-Sep-2024 FILED: DCS's Notice of Change of Counsel; Certificate of Service (Appellee DCS)

7. 16-Sep-2024 On November 3, 2023, this Court entered an order granting Appellant Teresa N.'s "Motion to Stay or Extend Deadline for Filing Petition for Review to Allow Additional Superior Court Proceedings." This Court directed that the petition for review was due within 30 days after the court of appeals' stay was lifted. On March 22, 2024, the court of appeals entered an order continuing the stay until May 21, 2024. When no petition for review was filed, the court of appeals issued the mandate on June 28, 2024. Given that appellant did not file a petition for review within the time allowed by this Court,

IT IS ORDERED dismissing this matter. (Tracie K. Lindeman, Clerk)
